Health Director Report

Food Safety

Health Director, David Ouellette stated the office has been very busy as usual. He is in the process of the second round of food inspections which are going well. Mr. Ouellette explained he had just done a food inspection at Royal Roast Beef and Pizza that has just opened in Dracut. They passed with flying colors.

40-U Properties

Mr. Ouellette explained we are still ticketing two properties, 1487 Bridge St and 67 Elliot St for Sanitary Code Violations.

Nuisance Complaints

Mr. Ouellette explained with the springtime coming, we are starting to get phone calls from some residents about garbage and other things accumulating in neighborhoods. We check them out daily and follow up if necessary.

Nurses Report

Resource Book

Town Nurse, Kara Curley explained she is waiting to hear back on the printing for the small pocket resource book she has been working on. Ms. Curley explained she did have a meeting along with the Health Director, David Ouellette, Town Manager, Ann Vandal, Superintendent, Steven Stone and Fire Chief, Rich Patterson, to look over the book. They all agreed it was good to print.

Narcan

Ms. Curley explained she also met with Superintendent Steven Stone, along with the Town Manager, Ann Vandal, Fire Chief, Rich Patterson and Health Director, David Ouellette to see if we can get Narcan into the schools.

TB Cases

Ms. Curley explained she still has one TB patient; she is watching her medicine dosage with her every day.

New Business

Paul Enis stated he has sent a reappointment letter to the Town Manager, requesting another term on the Board of Health. His term expires on May 1st of this year and would like to stay on for another term.

Old Business

No Old Business to discuss.
